Gentlemen:

In the American Historical Review for October, I note the announcement of the publication of the first bulletin of the committee on the "Promotion of Chinese Studies", a committee of your Council. If this bulletin is for free distribution, may I say that I should be very glad to have one. If this is not the case, will you be so good as to advise me the cost of it, in order that I may send that amount to you.

Very truly yours,

SN:JG
